

Name _____

What makes your partner's city worth living in?

Why do people live in different places?

In your presentation, you are going to discuss the attractive aspects of your partner's city. You do not need to research; your partner will help in class!

This presentation will have a similar format your previous paper on working from home / office, but now you will speak to the class!

You do not have to give your notes to me, but please use them to prepare!
You can use your notes during your presentation, but please prepare beforehand

You will also need to make a very short Powerpoint presentation.

It only needs to be FIVE slides. - One for the introduction, the conclusion, and each topic. Include one related picture on each slide.

Do not write all of the information on your slides.

One or two words for each sentence is perfect.

For example: People love shopping on Newbury Street >>>> Newbury St.

You will be graded during the presentation on a few things:

Slides: 10 points

Tone, Volume, Pronunciation, Eye Contact

Posture, Organization, Vocabulary, Grammar = 2 points each

Total = 25 points (1 extra point for error)

Presentations are on Thursday, March 4th and Friday, March 5th.
